

Message from the President

Opportunities for Life

We provide value through information to let you discover "Opportunities for Life". Recruit Group has been helping people overcome all kinds of negatives such as dissatisfactions, frustrations, inconveniences, concerns and so on. It has also assisted their way forward, creating employment and boosting consumption through information magazines, websites, counter services and so on.

On the other hand, our clients adapt to the needs of customers and users, which are changing ceaselessly with the surrounding environment. They also help trigger the reform or advancement of corporate activity itself, expanding industrial development. This is a cycle within which we must also operate.

I believe that "optimally matching industries and people", a task performed by Recruit Group for society, will remain our primordial role and strength, even in the IT era. Therefore, we will strive harder than ever to help you discover "Opportunities for Life" by improving all the products and services of Recruit Group continuously. We will give you optimal support as well as develop services, not only within Japan but also worldwide.

Masumi Minegishi

President, CEO, and Representative Director
Recruit Holdings Co., Ltd.