Business description

Recruit Management Solutions is a professional services firm under the Recruit Group umbrella that helps companies find solutions for their human resource issues and organizational issues, under the slogan "Making the Most of Individuals and Organizations." By integrating three methods (Assessment, Training, Consulting), we provide highly effective management solution services to solve our clients' problems. Our services include the development of employees who have the abilities needed to promote corporate management and business strategy, the development of organizations and employees who are involved at points of contact with their customers, and problem-solving related to organizational operation. Through our services, we at Recruit Management Solutions are focused on helping create a society in which individuals take pride in their work and have the courage and strength to drive change, and on ensuring that more companies have effective human resources and organizational structures.
